Course Outline: Functional English (CS-359)

Program: BS Computer Science (BSCS I)
Year: First Year Undergraduate
Course Instructor: Ms. Ayesha Khawaja

Course Description:

This course aims to develop students' foundational skills in English with a focus on grammar, academic writing, and presentation techniques. The content includes practical language tasks that enhance written and oral communication abilities essential for academic and professional success.

Course Objectives:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify and correct common sentence errors.
- Develop clear, coherent, and well-structured paragraphs and essays.
- Apply effective storytelling and descriptive techniques in writing.
- Analyze, compare, and contrast different perspectives in written form.
- Develop persuasive and argumentative writing skills.
- Prepare and deliver professional oral presentations.

Course Content:

- Unit 1: Sentence Structure and Grammar
    - Sentence Errors (Foundation: Grammar and Sentence Structure)
- Unit 2: Academic Writing Fundamentals
    - Paragraph and Essay Writing
- Unit 3: Descriptive and Narrative Writing
    - Descriptive Essays
    - Narrative Essays
- Unit 4: Analytical and Argumentative Writing

    - Comparison and Contrast Essays
    - Persuasive Writing
- Unit 5: Creative and Functional Writing
    - Dialogue Writing
    - Letter Writing
    - Short Story Writing
    - Review Writing
- Unit 6: Presentation and Communication Skills
    - How to Give Presentations
    - Oral Presentations

Assessment Criteria:

- Assignments and Quizzes: 30%
- Midterm Examination: 20%
- Final Examination: 30%
- Oral Presentations and Participation: 20%